The City commenced this foreclosure action pursuant to Title 4 of Part E of Article IX of the Charter of the City of Rochester (?the Tax Foreclosure Action?).

This online Auction is conducted for the purpose of the sale of those properties still in the Tax Foreclosure Action. Some of the properties will be sold to the Land Bank; some will be sold to the City; some will be sold to third parties.

Anyone may redeem a property by paying all the delinquent taxes, plus any interest and late payment charges up until the time that the property is finally struck off to the highest bidder at the Auction. If the property is redeemed, title to the property will stay with the current owner. If the property is not redeemed, the property will be sold at the Auction. The last day to redeem the property is the day prior to the Auction. The Auction will be conducted starting on August 22, 2023 at 12:00 p.m. and will continue until August 24, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.

Street addresses are provided for information purposes only. The parcels to be sold consist of the properties corresponding with the referenced tax account numbers as shown on the official tax maps. Reference to such tax maps should be made for a description of the parcels being sold. The Corporation Counsel's deed to be delivered shall describe the parcel only by reference to said tax account number. Each Property will be sold to the highest bidder for the amount of the highest bid. The website will specify the minimum bid amount, and the minimum increment that the next bid must increase. It is understood that Purchaser will receive a Corporation Counsel's deed which conveys only such title as can be conveyed by the Corporation Counsel as a result of the Tax Foreclosure Action. The City of Rochester is not responsible to provide Purchaser with an abstract of title, title insurance, or an instrument survey map. In the event that the Purchaser can show that the title to be conveyed is uninsurable, the sale may be canceled and the Deposit returned to the Purchaser at the option of the City, in the City's sole discretion. In the event the City cancels the sale because title to be conveyed is determined by the City to be defective, the obligation of the City of Rochester shall be limited to the return of the Deposit. In no event shall the City of Rochester be liable for any damages, claims, remedies, sums of money, or other relief, other than to return said Deposit.

Deposit. $5,000 or the total contract price, whichever is lower, shall be paid as a deposit upon notification from the Auctioneer that the Purchaser's bid has been accepted and upon execution of an Offer to Purchase Form. Contracts of less than $5,000 must be paid in full upon notification from the Auctioneer. Deposits may be made by credit card (Master Card, Discover Card, or Visa) or in a form acceptable to the Auctioneer. A 4% convenience/processing fee will be charged for payments made with credit/debit cards. Cashier's checks will be accepted at one particular branch of Citizens Bank, in person only. Payment instructions will be provided immediately following a successful bid. NO CASH, NO PERSONAL CHECKS, and NO CORPORATE CHECKS will be accepted. NO EXCEPTIONS.

The balance of the contract price, together with recording and filing fees?$190 for 1, 2, or 3 family house; $305 for all others?will be required to be paid by cash, bank check, or attorney's trust check at Rochester City Hall, Room 100A, 30 Church St, Rochester, NY 14614 between August 29 and August 31, 2023. If the Purchaser fails to pay the balance of the Purchase Price at the Treasurer's Central Cashiers, 30 Church St, Rochester, NY 14614 by August 31, 2023, Purchaser shall, at the City's election, forfeit the Deposit, and the sale shall be canceled.

In such case the City shall offer the property for sale to the second high bidder, third high bidder, fourth high bidder, or fifth high bidder as the case may be; in case no subsequent high bidder elects to purchase the Property, such Property will be sold to the City for the City's minimum bid. The City may, in its sole discretion, extend the time for the completion of the purchase.

The Properties are sold subject to:

(a) Any state of facts an accurate instrument survey may show and subject to any facts an inspection of the premises would reveal.

(b) Building tract restrictions or regulations.

(c) Easements, covenants, agreements, reservations and restrictions of record, if any, insofar as the same may be in force and effect.

(d) Rights of tenants and/or occupants in possession, if any.

(e) The right of the United States of America to redeem by reason of any Federal lien filed by or acquired prior to the date of sale.

(h) Demolition Proceedings and/or Orders requiring a Property to be demolished.

Failure to make full payment of the balance of the contract price by August 31, 2023, by cash, bank check, or attorney's trust check will result in forfeiture of the right to purchase the property and the deposit.

Taxes. The Purchaser will be responsible for water bills from the date of the Auction?not the date the deed is filed. The first tax bill will be the 2024 County tax bill, issued in January, 2024. The first City tax bill will be the 2024-2025 City tax bill, issued on July 1, 2024. The Purchaser will have to pay the January 1, 2024 County tax bill even if the deed is not recorded until later. The Purchaser will be responsible for water from the date of the Auction?even if the deed is not recorded until later.

The City has the right to remove any Property from the sale either before or after the Tax Foreclosure Sale, for reasons including, but not limited to: bankruptcy, redemption payments not noted, payments incorrectly applied, failure to notify the owner, or failure to notify creditor(s). However, the City is under no obligation to cancel any sale for any reason; the properties are sold ?as is.? Under no circumstances will any convenience fee associated with a credit card payment be refunded.

All purchasers are advised to personally inspect the premises prior to the Auction to the extent permitted by law.

The deed to the Purchaser will be a Tax Foreclosure Deed, signed by the Corporation Counsel (?the Corporation Counsel Deed?). All other liens and mortgages?whether older City tax liens, County tax liens, judgments, mortgages, etc.?are cut off by the Corporation Counsel Deed. All liens and mortgages are cut off by operation of law?the City does not file satisfactions of mortgages, judgments, or tax liens in the Monroe County Clerk?s office. Any and all claims with respect to title to the premises are merged in the Corporation Counsel Deed and are deemed not to survive.

No personal property is included in the sale of any parcels unless the former owner or occupant has abandoned the same. The disposition of any personal property located on any parcel sold shall be the sole responsibility of the purchaser following the closing of the sale.

All informational data, such as street addresses, SBL numbers, tax maps, property dimensions, legal use, or photos are for identification purposes only and are neither a guarantee nor a warranty as to location, dimensions, parcel use and/or size, or anything else.

NEITHER THE CITY NOR THE AUCTIONEER MAKE ANY WARRANTY, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, IN CONNECTION WITH THIS SALE, AND ANY SUCH WARRANTIES ARE HEREBY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED.

No sale to current owner: No property can be sold back to the current owner. The current owner, directly or indirectly, of a property being sold at the Auction, may not bid on that property, and may not attempt to purchase that property, directly or indirectly, through an agent, through a bidder acting on the owner?s behalf, or through any company owned or controlled by the current owner. The current owner may not use a limited liability company or corporation controlled by the current owner to bid on that property, or have a relative bid on such property.
