This restriction also applies to any party offering to purchase the property until the quit claim deed transferring ownership from the County to the new owner is recorded in the County Clerk's Office.

In most cases, a picture of the property is available for viewing. A map and tax information are available for each parcel. Under intermunicipal agreement, properties located in the City of Rome and City of Utica are free and clear of all delinquent city, and delinquent county tax liens.

However, the buyer will be responsible for the pro-rata portion of the current County, Town, City and School taxes if the Board of Legislators accepts the bid. The Commissioner of Finance and County of Oneida reserve the right to withdraw from the auction any of the properties listed on the schedule of real property at any time. The Commissioner of Finance and County of Oneida reserve the right to combine any properties and sell them together or as one. The Commissioner of Finance or designated deputy has sole discretion to make decisions concerning the conduct of the auction, prior to and during the auction, including, but not limited to the method of sale for each parcel or group of parcels. If this provision is violated, they will be liable for any excess of taxes, penalties, interest, and administrative costs over the amount of said auction bid. Said amounts will be subject to levy. I/we hereby certify that there are no delinquent county taxes due and owing beyond the current year on other properties located in Oneida County owned by me and/or any corporation, partnership, etc., as represented hereunder. In the event that the Commissioner of Finance finds such delinquent county taxes outstanding as of the date of auction, and as described above, said Commissioner is directed by the Board of Legislators to reject such bid(s) and may do so at any time.
